UNSCRIPTED TWILLINGATE DIGITAL ARTS FESTIVAL
20 - 23 SEPTEMBER 2018

The 4th annual Unscripted Twillingate Digital Arts Festival, the only festival of its kind in Atlantic Canada, is happening from 20 - 23 September in Twillingate, NL.

Tickets for workshops and events are now available to purchase for the 2018 Unscripted Twillingate Digital Arts Festival.

This year's presenters include James March (Instagram and Augmented Reality), Dennis Minty (photography), Lauren Holden (visual poetry), and Tom Cochrane (photo editing).

The festival is packed with fun and entertainment for all ages including a Kitchen Party with The Split Peas on opening night, the annual From the Bog and the Bay feast with invited chefs, a Pied Pirate Stroll, a Saturday Soirée showcasing the outstanding "Unscripted" festival moments with Newfoundland band Rum Ragged, and the third annual Amazing Root Cellar Race followed by an outdoor barbeque fun-day with live entertainment.

The festival will include a digital art exhibit, featuring work by local artists as well as our guest artist, Robyn Flannigan. The art gallery will be open from Thursday to Saturday at the Twillingate Masonic Lodge.
